

WILLIE T. BOBBITT,

Plaintiff,

vs.

FNU SCOTT, et al.,

Defendants.

Plaintiff's Request for Production is premature and has been misdirected to the Court. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) (as a general matter, a party must make initial disclosures at or within 14 days after the parties Rule 26(f) conference); Local Rule 26.1 ("Official Court-ordered and enforceable discovery does not commence until issuance of the scheduling order."); Local Rule 26.2 ("The parties shall not file any initial disclosures, designations of expert witnesses and their reports, discovery requests or responses thereto, deposition transcripts, or other discovery material unless: (1) directed to do so by the Court; (2) such materials are necessary for use in an in-court proceeding; or (3) such materials are filed in support of, or in opposition to, a motion or petition.").

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

Plaintiff is instructed to direct his discovery requests to the appropriate party or parties after the Court has entered a scheduling order.
